Dear Mr. President,

Congratulations! I am proud to notify you that I have discovered the Laws of Nature, existence, evolution, and gravitation together with many others, through direct and close communication with God. These discoveries can be used effectively to provide peace, prosperity, and health in the world. They should be used under effective compassionate leadership such as yours, that I trust. My discoveries have been achieved through inspiration by God, Albert Einstein, Sir Isaac Newton, my father, and my wife, and many other people of the world, especially yours.

I would like to have permission for a 20 minute appointment with you or any representative of yours, so that I may disclose my discoveries and my plan.

Sincerely yours,

Hormoz Mohtashemi M.D.
