Dear Dr. Mohtashemi:

Thank you for taking the time to come to my office and share your thoughts on the need for peace, especially in the Middle East. From what you told my staff, and the information you provided them, it is clear that you are deeply committed to this cause.

After studying your material, I am impressed by the amount of thought and effort that you have given to ending the misunderstandings and conflicts that cause so much suffering in the world. I certainly agree with you that one important step that can be taken is the promotion of better communication among national and religious leaders.

I hope you will continue this work.

Sincerely,

Marge Roukema
Member of Congress
