President William Clinton
The White House
Washington, DC

Dear Mr. President:

Proudly and respectfully I submit copies of the summary of my theories. Other documents are enclosed too. They include copies of the letter I have written to Pope John Paul II and Honorable William Bradley. The letters are Self-explanatory.

The inspiration that I had from God, I believe, was part of His/Her plan for revelation in order to fulfil the order of his prophecies also to begin a new era and movement for fulfillment of his promises in the beginning of the new Millennium. Proper review, study and analysis of the words of Jesus in the Bible, as well as other divine documents and tradition beliefs- indicate that such an inspiration, had been promised by God to occur in an unknown time (please see John: 16, 5, 17,8. Matthew: 24:27, 6:27 , etc. Based on my inspiration, I have come to the conclusion that the modern progressive religion that God present to his create in the beginning of the new Millennium, in His/Her own religion, that is "The Religion of God" or "God's Religion". It may not be called by any other name. The meaning of this religion is that after we become knowledgeable and educated sufficiently enough to know what God is, then we may become qualified to choose the proper way of life for ourselves.

Certainly, my theories teach us how to know God.

Sincerely,

Hormoz Mohtashemi, M.D.
